Smart Travel Insider Dalia Colon

In 2005, I moved from Ohio to Tampa Bay for a year... until I fell in love with my husband, guava pastries and 70-degree weather on Christmas. I've been here ever since, working as a journalist and moonlighting as a bargain hunter. My favorite four-letter word is "deal," so whether you've got money to burn or a pocket full of sunshine, I'll share the tips that'll get you more Florida for less.

I'm a homebody, so I usually spend New Year's Eve with a box of pizza and Ryan Seacrest. But a few years ago, Hubby and I went out for the night – dressy clothes, a pre-fixe dinner with friends, champagne, noisemakers, live music, more champagne – the works! It was the best New Year's Eve I ever had.

If you want to go out this year, I can't think of a better city than Miami. These New Year's Eve packages from Conrad Miami make planning a memorable night as easy as picking up the phone.

Choose from these packages:

- 1) Fine Dining: Linger over a six-course dinner and champagne toast at the hotel's Atrio restaurant, overlooking Miami's lights and fireworks. Dishes in the pre-fixe meal include warm quail, black fig, celery and apple salad; and lobster and scallop ravioli. $175 per person. Reservations start at 7 p.m.
- 2) Romance: Gaze into your sweetie's eyes as you dine on the balcony of Lvl 25, overlooking Biscayne Bay and fireworks displays all over Miami. For $1,000 per couple, you'll get a VIP table, six-course dinner for two and a bottle of Dom Perignon – nothing but the best for your New Year's squeeze!
- 3) VIP Treatment: Extend the romance with an overnight stay. Enjoy luxury transportation to and from the hotel, the VIP dining experience and an overnight stay at a suite equipped with chocolate-covered strawberries and a bottle of Dom Perignon. Then the next morning, dine on a buffet breakfast at Atrio's Restaurant, and indulge in a 50-minute couple's massage at the spa. What a way to start the New Year! The price? $2,012.

For reservations, call 305-503-6557 or 305-503-6589.
